

Cookies Policy

Effective date: 25 September 2023

Introduction

This Cookies Policy explains how Aave Limited and Avara Virtual Assets Limited (together referred to as “Avara”) uses cookies and similar tracking technologies on our website and app.

Please be informed that, as of now, no cookies are enabled on this website. Nevertheless, there is a possibility that we may choose to implement them in the future. This Cookies Policy outlines the conditions under which we might use cookies and how your information would be handled.

What Are Cookies?

Cookies are small text files that are placed on your computer or device when you visit a website or app. They are used to make websites work more efficiently and enhance user experiences by, for example, retaining user preferences and generally helping to improve overall usability. Cookies also help firms, such as Avara, ensure compliance with Anti-Money Laundering obligations by providing insights into suspicious or fraudulent activity.

How We Use Cookies

We use cookies for the following purposes:

- Essential Cookies: These cookies are necessary for the proper functioning of our website. They enable you to navigate our site and use its features. Without these cookies, some services may not be available.
- Analytics Cookies: We use analytics cookies to collect information about how visitors use our website. This information helps us improve the website's performance and user experience.
- Marketing Cookies: We may use marketing cookies to deliver relevant advertisements to you based on your interests and online behaviour. These cookies are provided by third-party advertising partners.

Types of Cookies We Use

Below are the specific types of cookies we use on our website:

- Session Cookies: These are temporary cookies that are deleted from your device when you close your web browser.
- Persistent Cookies: These cookies remain on your device for a set period, even after you close your browser. They help us recognise you when you return to our website.

Cookie Consent

When you visit our website for the first time, you will see a notification banner requesting your consent to use cookies. By clicking "Accept" or continuing to use our website, you consent to our use of cookies as described in this policy. If you do not wish to accept cookies, you can adjust your browser settings to disable or delete cookies.

Third-Party Cookies

Some of our cookies may be placed by third-party services that appear on our website, including MixPanel. These third parties have their own privacy and cookie policies, and we do not have control over their cookies. Information provided about our practices does not apply to third parties and so we recommend reviewing their policies.

Managing Cookies

You can manage and delete cookies through your browser settings. Please refer to your browser's help documentation for instructions on how to do this. Keep in mind that disabling or deleting cookies may affect the functionality of our website. For further information about cookies and how to block cookies on different browsers and devices, you can visit: <https://www.allaboutcookies.org>

Changes to This Policy

We may update this Cookies Policy from time to time to reflect changes in our practices or for other operational, legal, or regulatory reasons. We will notify you of any changes by posting the updated policy on our website with the "Last Updated" date.
